The Yale Broadcasting Company, Inc. is pleased to announce that Miss Jaye P. Morgan, RCA Victor recording artist and vocalist on the Robert Q. Lewis TV show, will be its guest at the 1955 Yale Junior Prom.

The Yale Broadcasting Company, WYBC, is a non-profit student owned and operated radio station serving the members of the Yale Community 18 hours daily.

Miss Morgan, who until recently sang with the Frank De Vol Orchestra on the west coast, currently has the number seven top record in the country, "That's All I Want From You".

The Yale Junior Promenade is one of the East's oldest social events and annually draws over 1500 couples. This year it will be held on Friday, March 4.

Miss Morgan will be received Friday afternoon at WYBC where a reception will be held in her honor. She will be taken on a tour of the University and make appearances at a few local radio and TV stations. After this a dinner in her honor will be given at Mory's, of Whiffenpoof fame. She will then be escorted to the Junior Prom by several members of WYBC and their dates and an honorary escort of four men in full dress.

During the intermission she will sing several selections with the Claude Thornhill orchestra, after which she will return to New York for the Saturday morning Roberts Q. Lewis show.
